¹ If mental health information covered by the Lanterman-Petris-Short Act is requested to be released to a third party by the patient, the physician, licensed psychologist, social worker with a master's degree in social work or marriage and family therapist, who is charge of the patient must approve the release. If the release is not approved, the reasons therefore should be documented. The patient could most likely legally obtain a copy of the record himself or herself and then provide the records to the third party, however.

Patient's
Initials

I understand that the information in my medical record may include information relating to sexually transmitted disease, acquired immunodeficiency syndrome (AIDS), or human immunodeficiency virus (HIV). It may also include information about behavioral or mental health services and treatment for alcohol and drug abuse. I understand that by signing this authorization, I am authorizing the release of such information unless specified otherwise above.

Patient's
Initials

I understand my treatment or payment for my treatment cannot be conditioned on the signing of this authorization.

Patient's
Initials

This authorization remains valid for two years from the date of signature.

Patient's
Initials

Any facsimile, copy, or photocopy of this authorization shall authorize you to release the records requested herein.

PURPOSE:

The purpose of the release of this information is:

- Insurance or other third party reimbursement
- Continuity of medical care
- Pending legal action
- At the request of the patient
- Other: (Specify)

RESTRICTIONS:

According to federal and state regulations, if the medical information requested related to AIDS/HIV treatment or treatment in a federally recognized chemical dependency unit, then the information will be accompanied by a statement limiting disclosure to third parties as required by law.

I understand that if the person or entity that receives the information is not a healthcare provider or a health plan covered by federal privacy regulations, the information described above may be re-disclosed and no longer protected by these regulations. However, the recipient may be prohibited from disclosing substance abuse information under the Federal Substance Abuse Confidentiality Requirements.

I realize that the office and its employees have a responsibility to maintain the confidentiality of the medical records in its possession. I understand that once the information is disclosed, it may be re-disclosed by the recipient and the information may not be protected by federal privacy laws or regulations. The office will not be held responsible for any subsequent disclosure by the recipient of the health information. I release Laura Evans, M.D., L.Evans MD Inc and employees thereof of any liability that may arise as a result of any subsequent disclosure of my health information by the recipient.

MY RIGHTS

I may refuse to sign this authorization. My refusal will not affect my ability to obtain treatment or payment or eligibility for benefits.²

I may inspect or obtain a copy of the health information that I am being asked to allow the use or disclosure of.

I may revoke this authorization at anytime, but I must do so in writing and submit it to the following address:

My revocation will take effect upon receipt, except to the extent that others have acted in reliance upon this authorization.

I have a right to receive a copy of this authorization.³

Information disclosed pursuant to this authorization could be re-disclosed by the recipient.

If this box is checked, the requester will receive compensation for the use or disclosure of my information.⁴

If signed by someone other than the patient, state your legal relationship to the patient:

² If any of the HIPAA-recognized exceptions to this statement applies, then this statement must be changed to describe the consequences to the individual of a refusal to sign the authorization when that covered entity can condition treatment, health plan enrollment, or benefit eligibility on the failure to obtain such authorization. A covered entity permitted to condition treatment, health plan enrollment, or benefit eligibility on the provision of an authorization as follows: (i) to conduct research-related treatment, (ii) to obtain information in connection with a health plan’s eligibility or enrollment determinations relating to the individual or for its underwriting or risk rating determinations, or (iii) to create health information to provide to a third party or for disclosure of the health information to such third party. Under no circumstances, however, may an individual be required to authorize the disclosure or psychotherapy notes.

³ Under HIPAA, the individual must be provided with a copy of the authorization when it has been requested by a covered entity for its own uses and disclosures.

⁴ The requester is to complete this section of the form.
